

Privacy Policy

This notice is provided to you on behalf of the ShurVault family of companies (hereafter "ShurVault" or the "ShurVault companies"). This includes: ShurVault, Inc. and all its subsidiaries operating separately in each state and doing business as "ShurVault".

Your Privacy is a priority for ShurVault. Please read this notice carefully. It provides important information about the way we collect, share, and protect your information. This privacy policy applies to anyone who applies for or uses our products or services, including current and former customers.

INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We collect non-public personal information about you from the following sources:

- information we receive from you on applications or other forms, such as your name, address, social security number, employment information, assets and income;
- information about your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others, such as your account history, your account balance, payment history, parties to transactions, and your reasons for doing business with us;
- information we receive from consumer reporting agencies, such as your credit worthiness and credit history;
- information we obtain to verify representations made by you, such as your employment history or income; and
- information obtained from specialized marketing information firms, such as household demographics.

HOW WE MAY USE AND SHARE YOUR INFORMATION

We may use all the information that we collect, as described above, for the following purposes:

- To provide you with the products and services you requested.
- To offer you additional products and services, from us or from others, that may be of interest to you.
- To comply with reporting and other legal requirements.
- To otherwise conduct business.

HOW WE PROTECT YOUR INFORMATION

We restrict access to non-public personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to guard your non-public personal information from unauthorized access.
